Definitions

Authorised roll – is a roll of electors for a district prepared by the Electoral Commissioner at a point in time (as soon as practicable after the issue of the writ for an election). It contains the surname, given name or names, date of birth and sex of each elector, and the residence of the elector (except in relation to an eligible overseas elector, itinerant elector or silent elector). A copy of an authorised roll that is made available for public inspection will not contain a person’s date of birth.

Election information – the information required to be collected after state and local government elections. Election information includes the names and addresses of electors who voted (other than silent electors and itinerant electors) and the method of voting used and the place at which electors voted.

Electoral information – the information required to be collected for the purpose of determining whether the address for which the person is enrolled is the person’s real residence. If the person is not enrolled, information collected to determine whether the person is entitled to be enrolled for any district. Electoral information may include a person’s telephone number, email address, and other information or code used to identify that person.

Electoral Information Register – a register where the Electoral Commissioner keeps and maintains records of all persons enrolled under the Electoral Act. The Electoral Information Register includes the surname, given name or names, date of birth and sex of each enrolled person, the residence of the person (except in relation to an eligible overseas elector or an itinerant elector), the electoral district for which the person is enrolled, whether the person is a silent elector, whether the person is a special elector, whether the person is a registered early voter and such other particulars as the Electoral Commissioner considers necessary to carry out his or her functions under Electoral Act.

Enrolment details - in relation to an elector, means the particulars included in the Electoral Information Register

Enrolment information – is information that is contained in an authorised roll or a list of enrolled persons that the Electoral Commissioner is or may be required to provide to registered political parties, members of parliament, nominated candidates and other persons. It contains the surname, given name or names, date of birth and sex of each elector, and the residence of the elector (except silent electors).

Local Government non-residential roll – a roll that local councils are responsible for preparing.\(^1\)

The non-residential roll is to include the names of non-resident owners of rateable land who have applied, at any time, for the inclusion of their names in any such roll; and who, in the opinion of the general manager, are qualified for inclusion in the roll.

Local Government residential roll – a roll the Electoral Commissioner is required to keep for each local government area of persons entitled to be enrolled as electors because they are residents of the area. The Electoral Commissioner may use information kept on the Electoral Information Register or on any roll used for Commonwealth elections as sources of information for compiling the residential roll.

Local Government roll of electors – this is a composite roll for a local government area that consists of the residential roll, the non-residential roll and the roll of occupiers and ratepaying lessees. An authorised copy of the roll is compiled for each election.

Local Government roll of occupiers and ratepaying lessees – a roll that local councils are responsible for preparing. The roll of occupiers and ratepaying lessees is to include the names of occupiers and ratepaying lessees who: have applied, at any time, for the inclusion of their names in any such roll; and who, in the opinion of the general manager, are qualified for inclusion in the roll.

New South Wales Electoral Commission – the three member Commission constituted by section 8 of the Electoral Act 2017.

Silent electors – a person who has applied successfully to have his or her residential address not shown on authorised rolls or any other list of electors on the grounds of personal safety. The Electoral Commissioner will ensure that the address of the person is not disclosed. However, if someone is granted silent enrolment for the address where they are already enrolled, that address will continue to appear on authorised rolls and other lists of electors that are already in the public domain but will not appear on any future authorised rolls or other lists of electors.

2. Introduction

2.1 The New South Wales Electoral Commissioner (the Electoral Commissioner) is responsible for collecting and maintaining enrolment, electoral and election information.

2.2 The Electoral Act 2017 (Electoral Act), the Local Government Act 1993 (LG Act) and other relevant legislative instruments regulate the disclosure of enrolment, electoral and election information. As enrolment, electoral and election information contains personal information, the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (PPIP Act) also applies.

Information Protection Principles

2.3 The New South Wales Electoral Commission (NSWEC) is committed to protecting the privacy of all personal information it collects, manages and stores in accordance with the information protection principles in the PPIP Act. The NSWEC ensures that enrolment, electoral and election information is protected by taking such security safeguards as are reasonable in the circumstances against loss and unauthorised access, use, modification or disclosure. The NSWEC will not disclose such information unless authorised or required under the PPIP Act, the Electoral Act and other relevant laws.

Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009

2.4 Access to enrolment, electoral and election information is not available under the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (GIPA Act).

2.5 An access application under the GIPA Act for enrolment information contained in an authorised roll or roll of electors will not be granted for a number of reasons, one being that there are already means under the Electoral Act and the LG Act by which individuals may apply to access that information.²

2.6 An access application under the GIPA Act for electoral information or enrolment details found in the Electoral Information Register will not be granted on the basis that there is a conclusive presumption of overriding public interest against disclosure of that information.³

2.7 An access application under the GIPA Act for election information will not be granted on the basis that there is an overriding public interest against disclosure of that information. For example, disclosure could reasonably be expected to reveal an individual’s personal information or contravene a principle outlined in the PPIP Act.⁴

3. Purpose

3.1 This policy outlines the most common or likely circumstances in which the NSWEC is required or authorised to disclose enrolment, electoral and election information.

4. Scope

4.1 This policy is a guide as to how the NSWEC manages its responsibilities with respect to the disclosure of enrolment, electoral and election information. This policy is applicable to all staff of the NSWEC, its contractors and any person or entity the NSWEC may provide such information.

4.2 This policy is intended to act as a guide and not relied upon as legal advice. Any questions concerning the disclosure of enrolment, electoral or election information may be directed to the NSWEC.

5. Disclosure of enrolment information

5.1 The PPIP Act, Electoral Act and the LG Act implicitly authorise the NSWEC to disclose enrolment information (and in limited circumstances silent elector information) to relevant staff, contractors and service providers to enable the NSWEC to properly exercise its functions under the Electoral Act, the LG Act and the Electoral Funding Act 2018 (EF Act).

5.2 For example, the NSWEC may provide enrolment information to a mailing house or printer or an Elections Manager or other election officials in order to conduct its business. The business of the NSWEC includes the administration of state and local government elections and the exercise of its enforcement functions in respect of elections, campaign finances and third party lobbyists.

5.3 The NSWEC requires all staff, contractors and service providers to sign a Code of Conduct Acknowledgment or Confidentially Agreement. The NSWEC’s Privacy Management Plan sets out in detail what training is available to staff to ensure compliance with the PPIP Act and other relevant legislation.

Provision of enrolment information to government agencies or bodies

Australian Electoral Commission

5.4 The Electoral Commissioner may provide enrolment information to the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) in accordance with the joint roll arrangement as authorised by the Electoral Act.⁵ This arrangement with the AEC provides for an exchange of information agreement that details joint enrolment activities and processes and the sharing of enrolment products and services. The information is shared for the purpose of preparing and maintaining rolls or electoral information registers under the Electoral Act and the Commonwealth Electoral Act. The AEC and the NSWEC share this information to maintain the integrity, completeness and accuracy of their electoral rolls. The AEC keeps and maintains an electoral roll for each state and territory that is available for public inspection at any AEC office. Questions concerning access to the Commonwealth electoral roll should be directed to the AEC.

Sheriff’s Office

5.5 The Electoral Commissioner must provide the Office of the Sheriff of New South Wales the latest available copies of the rolls of electors for such electoral districts as requested by the Sheriff’s Office for the purpose of preparing jury rolls.6

Crown Solicitor’s Office

5.6 The NSWEC may seek advice from the NSW Crown Solicitor’s Office (CSO) or another legal service provider when exercising its functions such as its enforcement functions in respect of compulsory enrolment and campaign finances. The NSWEC will provide briefs of evidence or instructions to CSO that may include enrolment information.

Local Councils

5.7 Section 296 of the LG Act enables a local council to enter into an arrangement with the Electoral Commissioner for the Electoral Commissioner to administer its elections, referendums and polls. In instances where a council elects to administer its own elections, that council will require access to relevant enrolment information held by the NSWEC.

5.8 Section 298 of the LG Act requires the Electoral Commissioner to keep a residential roll for each local government area. Enrolment information is an integral component to the conduct of local government elections.

5.9 As soon as practicable after the closing date for an election that is to be administered by the general manager of the council concerned, the Electoral Commissioner is to provide the general manager with a printed and an electronic copy of the residential roll for the area and each ward where applicable.7

5.10 The City of Sydney Act 1988 (CS Act) places a number of obligations on the general manager of City of Sydney with regard to the preparation and maintenance of the roll of non-resident owners of rateable land and the roll of occupiers and ratepaying lessees. Section 18B of the CS Act requires the general manager to send a copy of both rolls to the Electoral Commissioner for review (review costs are met by Council). As part of this review, the Electoral Commissioner is required to notify the general manager if any person on either of those rolls:

- is not entitled to vote;
- does not reside at the address shown for the person on the roll concerned, but resides at another address (including whether that person is a resident of the City of Sydney);
- is a silent elector; or
- will not be 18 years of age or over on Election Day.

Other government agencies or bodies

5.11 In the absence of any legislative provisions expressively authorising or requiring the NSWEC to disclose enrolment information to other government agencies or bodies, there are a number of ways under the PPIP Act and the Electoral Act the NSWEC may be authorised to disclose that information to those agencies or bodies. In each instance, disclosure of enrolment information is only available in limited circumstances. Note: It is the preference of the NSWEC that all agencies that have the power to compel production of information utilise those powers available to them (see paragraph 5.21 “Subpoenas and notices to produce”).

5.12 Section 18 of the PPIP Act contains exemptions to the general prohibition on disclosing personal information. In accordance with s 18, the NSWEC may disclose personal information (which may include enrolment information) to other agencies or bodies in instances where:

- the disclosure is directly related to the purpose for which the information was collected, and the agency disclosing the information has no reason to believe that the individual concerned would object to the disclosure; or
- the individual concerned is reasonably likely to have been aware, or has been made aware when the information was collected, that information of that kind is usually disclosed to that other person or body; or
- the NSWEC believes on reasonable grounds that the disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the life or health of the individual concerned or another person.\(^6\)

5.13 Further, s 23(5) of the PPIP Act provides that a public sector agency (whether or not a law enforcement agency) is not required to comply with s 18 of the PPIP Act if the disclosure of the information concerned:

- is made in connection with proceedings for an offence or for law enforcement purposes; or
- is to a law enforcement agency (or such other person or organisation as may be prescribed by the regulations) for the purposes of ascertaining the whereabouts of an individual who has been reported to a police officer as a missing person; or
- is authorised or required by subpoena or by search warrant or other statutory instrument; or
- is reasonably necessary:
  - for the protection of the public revenue; or
  - in order to investigate an offence where there are reasonable grounds to believe that an offence may have been committed.

5.14 There are also a number of exemptions found under s. 24 of the PPIP Act concerning the disclosure of information by investigative agencies. For example, the NSWEC is not required to comply with s. 18 if compliance might detrimentally affect (or prevent the proper exercise of) the NSWEC’s complaint handling functions or any of its investigative functions. Also, the NSWEC is not required to comply with s. 18 if the information concerned is disclosed to another investigative agency.

5.15 Section 25 of the PPIP Act provides that an agency is not required to comply with particular information protection principles in the PPIP Act where non-compliance is lawfully authorised or required or where non-compliance is otherwise permitted (or is necessarily implied or reasonably contemplated) under an Act or any other law. For example, under section 50 of the Electoral Act, the Electoral Commissioner may disclose enrolment information to other government agencies or bodies in instances where the Electoral Commissioner makes a finding that the public interest in providing the requested information outweighs the public interest in protecting the privacy of personal information in the particular circumstances. See paragraph 5.60 of this policy for further information.

5.16 Examples of government agencies or bodies that may be given access to enrolment information include the NSW Police Force, Revenue NSW, NSW Fair Trading, NSW Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages and the NSW Crime Commission.

\(^6\) Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW), section 18(1)(a)-(c).
Subpoenas and notices to produce

5.17 The NSWEC will on occasion receive subpoenas, summons or notices to produce from various courts or tribunals, for example, the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal, the Supreme Court of NSW, the Children’s Court of NSW or local courts for the production of enrolment information in relation to a particular person or persons.

5.18 The NSWEC must comply with the subpoena or notice to produce by providing the enrolment information requested. Failure to comply with a subpoena without a lawful excuse is a contempt of court and may lead to a fine or arrest.

5.19 It is noted that some government agencies or bodies may in accordance with their governing legislation compel (without court order) the NSWEC to produce enrolment information about a particular person or persons. Such agencies include: Centrelink; the Independent Commission Against Corruption; Child Support; and Housing NSW.

5.20 Unless certain circumstances apply, the NSWEC cannot be required to produce or divulge electoral information to any court, tribunal or authority or person having power to require the production of documents or the answering of questions, see part 6 of this policy for further details.

Access to enrolment details via the on-line enrolment verification facility

5.21 The Electoral Act enables the Electoral Commissioner to provide access (including in person, online or by telephone) to enrolment information for the purpose of allowing an individual to check whether they are enrolled and that their enrolment details are correct. The enrolment verification facility can be accessed from the NSWEC website.

Register of Political Parties for state and local government elections

5.22 The Register of Political Parties for both state and local government election are partially published online and additional information and documents that form part of these registers are available for inspection at the office of the NSWEC. These additional documents include the list of members (which includes names and enrolled addresses) the party has relied upon to meet the minimum registration requirements. Any person wishing to inspect these registers is required to make their request in writing, and provide photo ID upon request.

Publication of enrolled and other addresses in public registers required under the Electoral Funding Act

5.23 There are a number of registers under Part 7 of the EF Act required to be published by the NSWEC on its website:

- State Register of Candidates for each State general election;
- Local Government Register of Candidates for each Local Government general election;
- State Register of Third-party Campaigners for each State election;
- Local Government Register of Third-party Campaigners for each Local Government general election;

5.24 The Register of Candidates for both state and local government elections must include amongst other particulars, the full name and enrolled address of the candidate (s. 103(4)(a) of the EF Act).

5.25 The State Register of Third-party Campaigners and Local Government Register of Third-party Campaigners is to include, amongst other particulars, the full name and address of the third-party campaigner.

5.26 The State Register of Party Agents and Local Government Register of Party Agents is to include amongst other particulars, the name and address of the party agent.

5.27 The Register of Associated Entities is to include amongst other particulars, the full name and address of the associated entity.

5.28 The Register of Official Agents is to include amongst other particulars the name, address and occupation of the official agent.

5.29 The Register of Candidates requires the disclosure of enrolled addresses. With respect to the other registers, it is possible that an “address” is also an “enrolled” address.

5.30 A person whose personal information is contained in a register kept under Part 7 of the EF Act, cannot seek suppression of details under the PPIP Act (see relevant exemption from Part 6 of the PPIP Act under cl. 7 of the PPIP Regulation).

5.31 All applicants at time of registration can advise the NSWEC whether they are silent electors – in which case the NSWEC will not publish details of a silent elector’s address. If a registered candidate, third-party campaigner, party agent or official agent becomes a silent elector after they become registered, they are required to notify the NSWEC immediately so NSWEC can update its records and remove their enrolled address from registers currently published on our website (however their address will continue to appear in documents already in the public domain).

Publication and inspection of political donations disclosures

5.32 Particular persons such as party agents, elected members, candidates, official agents of associated entities and third-party campaigners, and major political donors are required to disclose to the NSWEC reportable political donations under the EF Act (see s. 19). The EF Act provides that disclosures must be published on the NSWEC’s website and copies must also be available for public inspection.

5.33 Disclosures of reportable political donations include amongst other things, the name and residential address of a donor (in relation to an individual). This residential address may also be an individual’s enrolled address. At the time disclosures are made, the NSWEC will not

If an individual is granted silent elector status after a disclosure is made, they are required to notify the NSWEC so their address can be redacted from disclosures published on our website or available for public inspection (however their address will continue to appear in documents already in the public domain).

Publication and inspection of claims for funding

5.34 A claim for public funding under Part 4 of the EF Act is not validly lodged with the NSWEC unless all expenditure specified in the claim is vouched for. A claim for administrative and new party policy development funding under Part 5 of the EF Act is to be accompanied by a declaration and such information or evidence as the NSWEC may require. This information may include enrolled addresses.

5.35 The NSWEC must publish a copy of a claim for public funding on its website. The NSWEC may make copies/extracts of material relating to its assessments available for public inspection at the office of the NSWEC, upon application under Part 4 of the EF Act. An application cannot be made under the GIPA Act to inspect supporting documentation lodged with a funding claim because this information is excluded information under schedule 2 of the GIPA Act.

Public access to authorised roll and residential roll

Public inspection

5.36 As soon as practicable after the issue of the writ for a state election, the Electoral Commissioner is required, pursuant to the Electoral Act, to make available for public inspection a copy of the authorised roll for a district.25 A copy of the authorised roll available for inspection will not contain any particulars relating to a person’s date of birth. Inspection is free of charge and available during ordinary office hours at the office of the NSWEC for a period of 40 days after the return of the writ for the election.

5.37 The Electoral Commissioner is also required, pursuant to the LG Act, to make available for public inspection the latest copy of the residential roll for public inspection at any reasonable time during office hours at the office of the NSWEC.26

5.38 The non-residential roll and the roll of occupiers and rate paying lessees for local government election purposes are made available for public inspection during office hours at the relevant council. Individuals will need to consult with the relevant councils to ascertain when those rolls will be available.27

Electoral purpose

5.39 An authorised roll and a residential roll are public registers within the meaning of the PPIP Act. Section 57 of the PPIP Act provides that:

The public sector agency responsible for keeping a public register must not disclose any personal information kept in the register unless the agency is satisfied that it is to be used for a purpose relating to the purpose of the register or the Act under which the register is kept.

5.40 The Electoral Act enables the Electoral Commissioner to determine the manner and form of access to list of electors and enrolment information; this includes the manner in which a copy of an authorised roll will be made available for public inspection.28

5.41 In order to satisfy its obligations under the PPIP Act, the LG Act and the Electoral Act, the NSWEC has implemented a procedure, recommended in guidelines issued by the Privacy Commissioner, that requires any person attending for inspection of an authorised roll or residential roll to complete an application form confirming that inspection is for a purpose relating to the purpose of the roll or the Act under which the roll is kept.

5.42 The NSWEC will refuse access to a roll if an applicant fails to complete the relevant application form, provide photo ID or fails to indicate an appropriate reason for inspecting a roll.

5.43 The purpose of public inspection of a roll is to ensure a degree of public transparency and accountability in terms of accuracy of enrolment information and to guard against electoral fraud.

5.44 Purposes that are not considered valid for inspecting a roll may include:
- obtaining addresses to send persons unsolicited mail;
- seeking the addresses of acquaintances and/or relatives in order to renew contact;
- seeking details in order to undertake research into a person’s antecedents,
- solicitors seeking information for the completion of probate processes; or
- local councils seeking to augment their mailing lists.

5.45 A person inspecting a roll may take handwritten notes but are not permitted to copy or record the information in any other way. An application form will be available at the office of the NSWEC, however it is always advisable that you telephone the office of the NSWEC in advance to organise a time to inspect a roll.

Disclosure of enrolment information to parties, members and candidates

5.46 The Electoral Act requires the Electoral Commissioner, in limited circumstances, to provide enrolment information to registered parties, members of parliament and candidates for state elections. In addition, the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005 (LG Regulation) requires the Electoral Commissioner, in limited circumstances, to provide enrolment information to candidates for local government elections. The purpose of these disclosure provisions is to assist candidates, civic office holders and registered parties in their representative duties and in communications with electors as part of the democratic process.

5.47 The Electoral Act, the LG Regulation and the PPIP Act, provide for the protection of personal information by prescribing limitations and restrictions on the use and disclosure of enrolment information to registered parties, members and candidates. A registered party, member and candidate must not use or disclose enrolment information that is provided by the Electoral Commissioner except for a purpose in connection with an election and monitoring the accuracy of enrolment information kept and maintained by the Electoral Commissioner. Use of enrolment information for a commercial purpose is strictly prohibited.

5.48 State registered parties, members of parliament and candidates for state and local government elections in receipt of enrolment information will be required to first provide the Electoral Commissioner with an undertaking that, amongst other things, the recipient’s systems and procedures are adequate to preserve the security of enrolment information. Under the PPIP Act, the NSWEC must ensure that personal information is protected, by taking such security safeguards as are reasonable in the circumstances. For example, all recipients of enrolment information may be required to enter into a written agreement with the Electoral Commissioner which details, amongst other things, the recipient’s obligations with respect to accessing enrolment information.

5.49 Those in receipt of enrolment information who do not comply with the relevant provisions of the Electoral Act, the LG Act or the PPIP Act could face serious penalties or could be required... to pay monetary compensation to affected persons. For example, section 52 of the Electoral Act (which is also applicable under the LG Regulation) limits the use and disclosure of enrolment information and prescribes a maximum penalty of 1,000 penalty units.

5.50 The Electoral Commissioner is required to provide enrolment information to parties, members and candidates free of charge. The Electoral Act and the LG Regulations enable the Electoral Commissioner to determine the manner and form of access to enrolment information; this includes the manner in which a copy of a list of electors will be made available. For example, the Electoral Commissioner may determine that the information is to be provided in a written or an electronic form.

5.51 In relation to state elections, the Electoral Commissioner is taken to have provided a member or candidate who is a member of a registered party with the list of electors and particulars if the Electoral Commissioner has provided the required list to the member or candidate’s registered party once every 4 years or as soon as practicable after the redistribution of the State into districts.

Registered state parties

5.52 The Electoral Commissioner is required, in accordance with the Electoral Act, to provide each State registered party a list specifying enrolled persons and their particulars:

- once every 4 years; and
- as soon as practicable after the redistribution of the State into districts; and
- on receiving a request from the registered officer of the party; and
- at such other times as the Electoral Commissioner considers appropriate.

Members of Legislative Council

5.53 The Electoral Commissioner is required, in accordance with the Electoral Act, to provide each member of the Legislative Council a list specifying enrolled persons and their particulars:

- once every 4 years (unless a member of a registered party); and
- as soon as practicable after the redistribution of the State into districts (unless a member of a registered party); and
- on receiving a request from the member but not more than once a year; and
- at such other times as the Electoral Commissioner considers appropriate.

Members of the Legislative Assembly

5.54 The Electoral Commissioner is required, in accordance with the Electoral Act, to provide each member of the Assembly a list specifying enrolled persons and their particulars for the district for which the member was elected:

- once every 4 years (unless a member of a registered party); and
- as soon as practicable after the redistribution of the State into districts (unless a member of a registered party); and
- on receiving a request from the member but not more than once each year; and
- at such other times as the Electoral Commissioner considers appropriate.

38 Electoral Act 2017 (NSW), sections 49(3) & 49(8).
5.55 In relation to a redistribution of the State into districts, the Electoral Commissioner must provide to each member of the Assembly a list specifying enrolled persons (and their particulars) for the district for which the member was elected, and a list specifying enrolled persons (and their particulars) for the district whose name and area, in the opinion of the Electoral Commissioner, most resemble the district for which the member was elected.\textsuperscript{39}

5.56 The Electoral Commissioner must also provide at the request of a member of the Assembly, but not more than 6 times each year, a list specifying persons (and their particulars) who are no longer enrolled and who are newly enrolled in the district represented by the member.\textsuperscript{40}

Candidates for Legislative Council

5.57 At the request of any candidate for a periodic Council election, the Electoral Commissioner must provide to the candidate a list of electors and their particulars in a form determined by the Electoral Commissioner.\textsuperscript{41} If the candidate is a member of a registered party, the Electoral Commissioner is taken to have provided that candidate with the list if the Electoral Commissioner has provided the list to the candidate’s registered party once every 4 years or as soon as practicable after the redistribution of the State into districts. This does not prevent a candidate who is a member of a registered party requesting that the list be provided directly to that candidate.

Candidates for Legislative Assembly

5.58 At the request of any candidate for an Assembly general election or by-election, the Electoral Commissioner must provide to the candidate a list of electors for the district for which the candidate is seeking election and their particulars in a form determined by the Electoral Commissioner.\textsuperscript{42} If the candidate is a member of a registered party, the Electoral Commissioner is taken to have provided that candidate with the list if the Electoral Commissioner has provided the list to the candidate’s registered party once every 4 years or as soon as practicable after the redistribution of the State into districts. This does not prevent a candidate who is a member of a registered party requesting that the list be provided directly to that candidate.

Candidates for local government elections

5.59 The Electoral Commissioner is required, in accordance with the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005, to provide a local government candidate enrolment information as appearing in the roll of electors consisting of a list of electors for the candidate’s ward or, if the area is not divided into wards, a list of electors for the candidate’s area and their particulars.\textsuperscript{43}

Disclosure of enrolment information to other persons

5.60 From time to time the Electoral Commissioner receives requests from people, organisations or other government agencies for access to enrolment information, being a list of enrolled persons and their particulars. These requests are dealt with in accordance with section 50 of the Electoral Act.

5.61 Requests made under section 50 must be in writing and addressed to the Electoral Commissioner. They must contain sufficient information to enable the Electoral Commissioner to undertake the prescribed public interest test specified in section 50.

5.62 Each request must specify the following:

- details of the particular enrolment information sought;
- why this information is sought;

\textsuperscript{39} Electoral Act 2017 (NSW), section 49(4).

\textsuperscript{40} Electoral Act 2017 (NSW), section 49(5).

\textsuperscript{41} Electoral Act 2017 (NSW), sections 49(6) & 49(8).

\textsuperscript{42} Electoral Act 2017 (NSW), sections 49(7) & 49(8).

\textsuperscript{43} Local Government (General) Regulation 2005 cl 284A.
• how the information will be used;
• sources other than the NSWEC that may hold the information sought;
• other organisations/agencies approached for provision of the information;
• why the applicant considers that the NSWEC is the most appropriate source of the information; and
• how, in the applicant’s view, the public interest in providing enrolment information to the applicant outweighs the public interest in protecting the privacy of persons affected (see below for details on the public interest test).

5.63 The Electoral Commissioner will consider the merits of each request. The Commissioner is under no obligation to provide the information requested.

The public interest test

5.64 The Electoral Commissioner is not permitted to provide a list of enrolled persons and their particulars to other persons or organisations (for purposes unrelated to electoral administration or the democratic process) unless the public interest in disclosure outweighs the public interest in protecting the privacy of personal information.44

5.65 In making this assessment, the Electoral Commissioner must ensure that the exercise of this function promotes the objectives of the Electoral Act and observes the privacy protection principles and directions under the PPIP Act.

5.66 The result is that disclosure of enrolment information to other persons for other than electoral purposes is very limited and strictly controlled. The Electoral Commissioner will generally not accede to requests for enrolment information under section 50 of the Electoral Act unless disclosure is for one of the following purposes:

• public health and safety;
• criminal law enforcement by authorised agencies; and
• protection of the public revenue.

5.67 As custodian of personal information of approximately 5.2 million electors, the NSWEC takes its responsibilities to protect the privacy of personal information very seriously and NSW electors have a right to expect that the disclosure and use of their personal information is restricted.

Public health and safety

5.68 When considering the public interest in disclosure of enrolment information for public health and safety purposes, the Electoral Commissioner may have regard to the PPIP Act. For example, the information protection principle concerning the disclosure of personal information will generally not apply if an agency believes on reasonable grounds that the disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the life or health of the individual concerned or another person.45

5.69 Disclosure of enrolment information for medical research and health screening programs are expressly anticipated in section 50 of the Electoral Act.46 However, just because an applicant is undertaking medical research or facilitating a health screening program, it does not automatically follow that the Electoral Commissioner will provide the information requested. The Electoral Commissioner must first apply the public interest test found in section 50. In addition, the Electoral Commissioner may also consider the request in light of the Statutory Guidelines on Research made pursuant to section 27B of the PPIP Act (this Guideline replaced

44 Electoral Act 2017 (NSW), section 50(1).
45 Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW), section 18(1)(c).
46 Electoral Act 2017(NSW), section 50(5). The Electoral Act permits additional information (age range and sex) to be released for medical research and the conduct of health screening programs.
the Direction on Disclosures of Information by Public Sector Agencies for Research Purposes). For example, this guideline requires an agency, amongst other things, to be satisfied that the research has been approved by a committee established for the purpose of giving ethical approval to research projects after such a committee has considered the privacy implications of the collection and subsequent use of such information by the researcher in the absence of express consent. The committee is required to comply with the Guidelines issued by the National Health and Medical Research Council under s.95 of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). Institutional ethics committees do not routinely consider screening proposals and may not be willing to do so. If the screening proposals can produce ethics committee approval then the Electoral Commissioner may accept this in the same way it does for medical research.

Law enforcement

5.70 When considering the public interest in disclosure of enrolment information for criminal law enforcement purposes, the Electoral Commissioner may have regard to section 23 of the PPIP Act for guidance. Section 23 provides an exemption to the information protection principles concerning the disclosure of personal information if, inter alia, the disclosure of the information concerned:

- is made in connection with proceedings for an offence or for law enforcement purposes (including the exercising of functions under or in connection with the Confiscation of Proceeds of Crimes Act 1989 or the Criminal Assets Recovery Act 1992); or
- is to a law enforcement agency for the purposes of ascertaining the whereabouts of an individual who has been reported to the police as a missing person; or
- is reasonably necessary for the protection of the public revenue, or in order to investigate an offence where there are reasonable grounds to believe that an offence may have been committed;
- the agency is providing the information to another public sector agency or the agency is being provided with the information by another public sector agency, and the collection, use or disclosure of the information is reasonably necessary for law enforcement purposes.

5.71 Enforcement agencies from the Commonwealth and other States or territories should approach the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC).

5.72 Requests by any NSW public sector agency for release of enrolment information for law enforcement purposes should be made in writing signed by a senior officer, certifying that the information is reasonably necessary for the purposes of law enforcement.

Protection of the public revenue

5.73 When considering the public interest in disclosure of enrolment information for the protection of public revenue purposes, the Electoral Commissioner may have regard to established privacy principles. Public revenue indicates a function of collecting income on behalf of the government not merely saving expenditure. The Electoral Commissioner will consider any legislative basis for the request including any penalty provisions that may be relevant in order to determine whether the legislation may be regarded as legislation that makes provision for the protection of the public revenue.47

Alternative sources

5.74 The NSWEC recognises that some people and organisations are typically attracted to enrolment information not because of anything it reveals about electoral matters (being the purpose for which information was collected) but, rather, because it is a comprehensive and convenient database of name and address information which might be used to promote the objects of that person or organisation.

5.75 The electoral roll is only one of a number of databases from which such information can potentially be sought. Others include telephone directory databases and credit reference databases. Applicants must indicate why they need enrolment information specifically, and what other sources of information they have considered and/or approached.

5.76 Even if the applicant can make a case for needing enrolment information, it does not automatically follow that the Electoral Commissioner will provide the information requested. The Electoral Commissioner must first apply the public interest test.

5.77 If the requesting agency is a Commonwealth agency, or the request is for enrolment information for more than one jurisdiction, the obvious source agency would be the AEC, which has an extensive range of permitted disclosures and established procedures for handling access requests.

Assessments in favour of disclosure

Charges and form of access

5.78 If the Electoral Commissioner makes an assessment that the public interest in providing the requested information outweighs the public interest in protecting the privacy of personal information, the Electoral Commissioner may:

- provide the person or organisation a list specifying enrolled persons and particulars that, in the opinion of the Electoral Commissioner, are relevant to the person’s request, and
- charge a fee to cover the cost of providing the list.\(^{48}\)

5.79 If the Electoral Commissioner provides information to a person or organisation that conducts medical research or provides a health screening program, the Electoral Commissioner may include age range and sex of electors as part of the list.\(^{49}\)

5.80 It is noted that the Electoral Act enables the Electoral Commissioner to determine the manner and form of access to enrolment information; this includes the manner in which a list of electors will be made available.\(^{50}\)

Undertakings

5.81 If the Electoral Commissioner has made an assessment in favour of disclosure, the Electoral Commissioner must obtain from the person or organisation and undertaking that they will:

- only use the information for the purpose for which the NSWEC agreed to provide the information; and
- not copy the information or give it to any other person; and
- return the information to the NSWEC or destroy it after use.\(^{51}\)

5.82 Applicants will be asked to complete a written undertaking before any enrolment information is disclosed. It is an offence under the Electoral Act for a person to refuse or fail to comply with such an undertaking.

Offences under the Electoral Act and PPIP Act

5.83 The Electoral Act and the PPIP Act provide for the protection of personal information and impose limitations and restrictions on the use and disclosure of enrolment information provided under section 50 of the Electoral Act. Those in receipt of enrolment information who do not comply with the relevant provisions of the Electoral Act or the PPIP Act may face serious penalties including fines up to $110 000, imprisonment and/or the payment of monetary compensation to affected persons.\textsuperscript{52}

Record keeping and reporting

5.84 The Electoral Commissioner must publish on its website, any finding made under section 50 of the Electoral Act. This information may include the details of the applicant. A summary of any assessment will also be made available in the NSWEC’s annual report.\textsuperscript{53}

5.85 The NSWEC is permitted to report an alleged breach of the Electoral Act, the PPIP Act and/or any other relevant laws by a recipient of enrolment information to relevant authorities such as the NSW Police Force and/or the NSW Information and Privacy Commission.

6. Disclosure of electoral information

Disclosure of electoral information for administration purposes

6.1 The Electoral Commissioner is authorised to collect information, referred to as Electoral Information, for the purpose of maintaining and revising the Electoral Information Register.\textsuperscript{54} Electoral information may include a person’s telephone number, email address, and other information or code used to identify that person. The Electoral Commissioner collects this information as part of its obligations under the direct enrolment provisions of the Electoral Act.\textsuperscript{55}

6.2 The Electoral Commissioner (and officers acting under the directions of the Electoral Commissioner) are exempt from any requirements of the PPIP Act relating to the collection, use or disclosure of personal information to the extent that personal information is collected, used or disclosed for the purposes of or in connection with the collection and maintenance of electoral information by the Electoral Commissioner.\textsuperscript{56}

6.3 A NSWEC officer must not directly or indirectly make a record of electoral information or divulge electoral information to another person unless exercising his or her functions under Part 5 of the Electoral Act (these functions extend to the maintenance of the Electoral Information Register and the exchange of information pursuant to the arrangement between the AEC and the NSWEC under s 56 of the Electoral Act). Non-compliance with this requirement is an offence with a maximum penalty of 1000 penalty units and may also result in disciplinary action including dismissal.\textsuperscript{57}

Disclosure of electoral information to other persons

6.4 Despite the general prohibition on disclosing electoral information to other persons, the NSWEC is authorised to divulge electoral information to a person or persons:

- if the Electoral Commissioner certifies that it is necessary in the public interest that the information be divulged; or

- a person to whom the information relates has expressly authorised it to be disclosed.\textsuperscript{58}

6.5 The disclosure of electoral information to third parties is very limited and strictly controlled and subject to enhanced privacy protections.

\textsuperscript{52} See, for example: Electoral Act 2017 (NSW), sections 50(4) and 52; Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) section 62.

\textsuperscript{53} Electoral Act 2017 (NSW), section 50(6)-(7).

\textsuperscript{54} Electoral Act 2017 (NSW), sections 41; Local Government Act 1993, section 298.

\textsuperscript{56} Electoral Act 2017 (NSW), section 44(3) and 45(6).

\textsuperscript{57} Electoral Act 2017 (NSW), section 55. In addition, all staff members are required to comply with the NSWEC Code of Conduct and related policies, guidelines and legislation. The NSWEC will take action against breaches of the NSWEC Code of Conduct that may result in the imposition of sanctions, up to and including, termination of employment.

6.6 Examples of instances when disclosure of electoral information may be considered necessary in the public interest include:

- to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the life or health of the individual concerned or another person;
- to assist with emergency notification procedures undertaken by federal or state law enforcement agencies or fire and rescue services during an emergency; or
- for law enforcement purposes undertaken by a federal or state law enforcement agencies.

6.7 Any certification of the Electoral Commissioner will be included in the NSWEC’s Annual Report.\(^{59}\)

6.8 Recipients of electoral information will be required to enter into a written agreement with the Electoral Commissioner for the provision of electoral information.

6.9 Further, it is an offence for any person or body to whom or which information is divulged (and a person or employee under the control of that person or body) to directly or indirectly make a record of electoral information or divulge electoral information to another person.\(^{60}\)

Subpoenas and notices to produce

6.10 A person cannot be required to produce or divulge electoral information to any court, tribunal or authority or person having power to require the production of documents or the answering of questions unless:

- the Electoral Commissioner certifies that it is necessary in the public interest to do so; or
- a person to whom the information relates has expressly authorised the information to be produced or divulged.\(^{61}\)

6.11 The Electoral Commissioner will only certify that it is necessary in the public interest to produce or divulge electoral information in response to a notice to produce or attend in very limited circumstances, for example, if the notice is at the behest of a state or federal law enforcement agency.

6.12 Any certification of the Electoral Commissioner will be included in the NSWEC’s Annual Report.\(^{62}\)

7. Disclosure of election information

Disclosure of election information to state registered parties and independent members

7.1 After a state election, each state registered party and independent Member of Parliament (in respect of the member’s district) may seek access to election information held by the NSWEC.\(^{63}\)

7.2 Recipients of election information will be required to enter into a written agreement with the Commission for the provision of election information.

7.3 Election information contains:

- the names and the addresses of electors who voted (other than silent electors and itinerant electors); and

• whether they voted personally, by post or another method authorised under the Electoral Act and, if they voted at a voting centre for the district for which the electors were enrolled, the location of that voting centre.\(^{64}\)

7.4 Election information provided under the Electoral Act must only be used in connection with an election. It is an offence for any person to use, or cause or permit the use of, election information provided by the Commission for any purpose other than in connection with an election.\(^{65}\)

Disclosure of election information to local government registered parties and independent councillors and mayors

7.5 After a local government election (administered by the Electoral Commissioner), each registered party and independent councillor and mayor (in respect of the councillor’s and mayor’s ward or area) may seek access to election information held by the NSWEC.\(^{66}\)

7.6 Recipients of election information will be required to enter into a written agreement with the Commission for the provision of election information.

7.7 Election information contains:

• the names and the addresses of electors who voted (other than silent electors); and

• whether they voted personally or by post and, if they voted at a polling place for the ward or area for which the electors were enrolled, the location of that polling place.

7.8 The offence provisions in the Electoral Act in respect of election information are adopted in connection with election information provided under the LG Regulation.\(^{67}\)
