Child protection declaration

Candidate

All candidates for the Legislative Assembly and the Legislative Council are required by the Electoral Act 2017 to make a child protection declaration.

Your nomination is not valid unless it is accompanied by this child protection declaration. Further information is available at $\underline{elections}$, \underline{nsw} , \underline{gov} , \underline{au}

This form is not legal advice

The Electoral Act 2017 specifies what must be declared. The information in this form about what must be declared is intended as general guidance only. You should seek independent legal advice if you have any specific legal queries about whether any conviction, proceeding or order must be declared in your declaration.

Offences that must be included in declaration

Your declaration must state whether you have ever been convicted of any of the offences, or been the subject of any of the proceedings, listed in Schedules 1 and 2 to the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 (NSW) which are set out below.

Offence for false statement and disqualification

A false statement on this form is an indictable offence with a maximum penalty of five (5) years imprisonment. If you are elected and convicted of that offence your seat will become vacant because of that conviction.

Child protection declaration

Candidate

All candidates for the Legislative Assembly and the Legislative Council are required by the Electoral Act 2017 to make a child protection declaration.

Your nomination is not valid unless it is accompanied by this child protection declaration. Further information is available at $\underline{elections.nsw.gov.au}$

This form is not legal advice

The Electoral Act 2017 specifies what must be declared. The information in this form about what must be declared is intended as general guidance only. You should seek independent legal advice if you have any specific legal queries about whether any conviction, proceeding or order must be declared in your declaration.

Offences that must be included in declaration

Your declaration must state whether you have ever been convicted of any of the offences, or been the subject of any of the proceedings, listed in Schedules 1 and 2 to the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012 (NSW) which are set out below.

Offence for false statement and disqualification

A false statement on this form is an indictable offence with a maximum penalty of five (5) years imprisonment. If you are elected and convicted of that offence your seat will become vacant because of that conviction.
